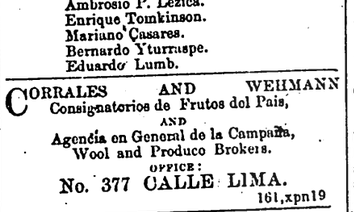
THE BATTLE OF LIFE.

Which is continually going on between health and disease, has never received from any Medicine such marked and unmistakable assistance, on the side of health, as it has from

BRISTOL'S SARSAPARILLA.



This powerful vegetable detergent has been fully tested in nearly every part of the civilised world. It has been tried in long-standing cases of and has invariably been successful in curing them. It has been again and again tested in Fever and Ague, Intermittent and Remittent Fevers, and always with the same excellent results. In it is infallible, curing cases that had resisted al other treatment for nearly a lifetime, allaying every phase of inflammation, and leaving the joints in a natural condition. In it is a sovereign remedy—causing new circulation of the blood around the edges of the sore, are speedily filling up and drawing together the flesh; which in old sores is generally inert and ifeless. In the effect is truly wonderful. The scrofulous and depraved blood and humors on which such sores feed and live, are neutralized at the stomach, the fountain-head, and new and healthy blood soon washes away every vestige of disease. In the effect is equally gratifying, although, of course, it is necessary to persevere for some months in diseases such as those having their origin in bad blood and humors; and in such diseases as the Sarsaparilla should be continued for at least four or five months after the trouble has to all appearance been overcome, because unless this is done, and the nature of the blood and humors be entirely changed throughout the whole body, the disease is liable to return with unabated force. In the Sarsaparilla should be taken five or six times a day, but not in very large doses—say two or three tablespoonfuls at a time. And in all of these diseases we strongly urge the use of Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, in conjunction with the Sarsaparilla, taking two or three Pills every second night on retiring to rest. In this way cures will be more speedily effected.

CANCER,

THE ONLY CURE FOR ROT IN SHEEP.

A Certain destroyer for Maggots, in all Class of Animals.

Let the Sheep infected with this disease in the feet be put into a dry place; after remaining an hour, take a brush and clean the dirt from between the claws, then shaking the bottle well, dip a stick or feather into the liquid, and annoint the diseased part all over, after which let them stand dry for an hour. If properly applied, one application is generally sufficient.

To destroy maggots it may be used in the same manner, but sometimes it requires to be applied three times; it also cures all sorts of ulcers arising from them, and may be applied to any part to prevent the flies from forming maggots.

Experience has proved it to be the best preventive that can be applied after castrating stallions, and one application of the liquid may save a valuable life.

The Chilian Mails.

Valparaiso, Nov. 3, 1869.

Since our last the Bill for authorizing the Government to maintain an additional force of 1,500 men on the frontier, and for a grant of $f.500,000 for the expenses of the war has passed both Houses. The postal convention with the Argentine Republic has passed the Senate, and several clauses of the Extradition treaty with the same country have been advanced a stage.

A Bill providing for the establishment of a court of First Instance at Freirina has passed the House of Deputies, as also the Bill for authorizing the Government to raise a loan of $f.4,000,000 for the construction of the Chilian and Talcahuano Railway. The Bill for granting a sum of $f.20,000 to the bishops, who have gone to Rome, in order to attend the Ecumenical Council, has also been before the House of Deputies, but no decision has been arrived at; nevertheless, its passage through the Houses will, in all probability, only be delayed for a few days longer.

We continue to receive from all parts of the country the most satisfactory reports with regard to the appearance of the crops, and a very abundant harvest may be safely predicted.

The President of Equador issued a decree under date of the 15th September, ordering the new tariff to take effect from the 1st ult. The National Convention has authorized the President to purchase two war vessels, to build a first class lighthouse on Santa Clara island, and two second class, one at Punta Arenas, and another at Punta Mandinga. He has also been authorized to lay down bell buoys on the coast and in the rivers.

Considerable alarm prevailed at Guayaquil at the date of the latest advices, owing to the Falb prophecy, and the Bishop of that place ordered prayers to be offered up in all the churches. On the 16th of September a smart shock of earthquake, preceded and followed by a strong wind, was felt at Guayaquil.

The Supreme Court has confirmed a decision of the Judge of the First Instance of Copiapo, ordering the property of the late Alexander P. Tivy, who died intestate in September of last year, to be delivered up to his mother, Mrs. Maria Tivy, residing in the county of Waterford, Ireland. The value of the property is estimated at $f.40,000.

James J. Watson, Esq., has been appointed H.B.M. Vice-Consul at Carrizal Bajo.

An exclusive privilege for a new method of extracting copper from sulphates, has been granted to Mr. Frederick Eich, for the term of six years, and with an extra allowance of one year and a-half in which to found the necessary establishment, &c.

The net income of the Santiago and Valparaiso Railway, during the month of September last, amounted to 54,125 dols 6c.

A letter box is about to be established at the settlement of Punta Arenas.

The Bishop of Honolulu and family, and his chaplain, the Rev. Lord Chas. Hervey, arrived at Panamá on the 4th ult., and were to leave for San Francisco, en route for Honolulu, on the 9th ult.

We feel pleasure in being able to inform our readers that it has been officially announced that a reduction of 25 per cent is about to be made in the rates of postage between the West Coast of South America and Great Britain. The charge, which has hitherto been 2s per half ounce, will hereafter be reduced to 1s 6d. The rate is still too high, and we do not anticipate any very gratifying results from the proposed reduction; if, however, it were reduced to 1s the half ounce, we are of opinion the great increase in correspondence that would ensue would more than compensate for the difference between the old and new rate, besides which, there can be no doubt that the reduction would operate very beneficially upon the commercial interests of the West Coast Republics and Great Britain.

From Iquique we learn that considerable alarm again prevailed among a great portion of the inhabitants, owing to rumonrs that had been industriously circulated to the effect that great irruptions of the sea and earthquakes would take place between the 20th and 24th inst. The public schools, which were closed by order of the authorities previous to the dreaded time announced by Falb, are about to be reopened. The heat has been very great during the past few days, and the local print calls upon the sanitary committee to appoint commissions to make domiciliary visits for the purpose of enforcing cleanliness among the inhabitants, the majority of whom are of very dirty habits, and not unfrequently keep pigs and other animals in their houses. The law making it obligatory to use the decimal system went into force on the 20th ult. Several shocks of earthquake have been felt lately, one on the 18th, at 3.20 a.m., having been very strong. The volcano Isluga is sending forth daily increasing columns of smoke of a fetid nature.

We have no great change to advise in the state of our money market during the past fortnight.

The banks continue the same rate of discount as mentioned in our last with a similar fair demand.

The rates of exchange on London and Paris have been altered a little, as will be seen by our annexed quotations, on England 46.

We have heard it rumored that the Directory of the Bank of Valparaiso have it in contemplation to increase the nominal capital of the bank to six million of dollars, its present subscribed capital being only two millions; if this alteration be carried into effect, it will, if possible, increase the confidence of the public with regard to its issue of notes, and also enable the directory to advantageously extend the business of the bank.

Our share market has somewhat revived lately, with a tendency in many instances to improvement in prices.—West Coast Mail.

THE FALKLAND ISLANDS.

(Extracts from the Letter of a Traveller.)

Having been commissioned by Mr Bernardo Delfino, agent in Buenos Ayres of the Association of Mutual Insurance of Italian Merchant Navy, to report officially upon the wreck, burning, and abandonment of the Italian barque Peru, I took a passage in the early part of July on board the English schooner Foam, bound for Stanley, the capital of the Falkland Islands. Having been favored by winds from the N.N.E. and N.W., we reached our destination in 14 days.

Stanley has a population of from 500 to 600 inhabitants, and it is the seat of government. It possesses an excellent harbour, which is surrounded by a semi-circle of hills covered with snow, with an opening from 250 to 300 yards wide. This mouth is the only ingress and egress for ships to communicate with Port William. The harbour of Stanley is a port at the end of another immense port.

Vessels go alongside the three or four moles that exist in front of the town, where there is from 18 to 36 feet of water.

The harbour is perfectly sheltered and calm when a gale is blowing outside.

The approach to Port William is rather dangerous, on account of the many rocks that exist near the surface of the water.

A fine lighthouse has been built at the extremity of Cape Pembroke, which is the most easterly point of the island. The tower is made of iron, and 89 feet high; it is of a circular form painted with large white and red stripes, which are visible in daytime for a great distance.

The position of the lighthouse is 51° 40′ 42″ south latitude, and 57° 41′ 48″ west longitude, Greenwich, and in fair weather the light, which is fixed, can be seen 16 or 18 miles off from all directions, except on the western or Port William side.

Stanley was founded by the English in the year 1833, if I mistake not. As I have already stated, it is the seat of Government, which is composed of—

1st. A Governor, the immediate Representative of the Queen of England.

2nd. A Stipendiary Magistrate appointed by the Crown.

3rd. A military commander, with a garrison of thirty-five men under his orders.

4th. A shipping master.

There is besides a Colonial Council, composed of seven individuals, who assist the magistrate in extraordinary cases.

There are two surgeons, one military, the other civil, a clergyman, a schoolmaster, a schoolmistress, and a jailer, who are in the Crown's pay.

There is no Custom House or anything resembling it.

Stanley is a free port.

Any ship of any nationality can embark or land goods and merchandise without anybody asking what they are or what they cost.

Besides the small garrison just mentioned, Stanley has a battery "á fleur d'eau," which commands the harbour. This battery is armed with 3 pieces.

The commerce of the Falklands consists in regard to exports of Penguin's oil, hides of ox, seal and sea lion, and wool. The vegetable productions are almost nil. It is with great difficulty that a bad class of potatoes is grown, and these, with meat, which is very abundant, form the principal and most common food of the inhabitants.

Two large islands separated by a navigable canal form the most important part of what is known as the Falkland Islands. They are distinguished by the name of East and West Falkland. In the former is Stanley. The soil is very mountainous, and there is but scanty grazing land. What is not hilly is marshy ground, with immense quagmires in which a man on horseback will be swallowed up horse and all, if by misfortune he leaves the beaten track or loses it under the snow.

Nature in her wise dispositions has made what would appear a cause of poverty one of wealth for the inhabitants at East Falkland. The boggy land of the plains makes an excellent fuel, which is a very good substitute for coal. This fuel is used in all the houses both by the rich and the poor. During the autumn months the poor go and cut, and the rich send to have cut square blocks of this turf in sufficient quantity to last for a whole year These square sods, which are from eight to ten inches long by three deep, are piled up in large mounds, and after being exposed for a month to the action of the sun make a fuel which gives as much heat as coal, though not of equal duration.

It strikes me that this turf, mixed with voluminous substance might be successfully used in lieu of coal for steam navigation. The experiment all worth might be worth a trial.

The town of Stanley is composed solely of two streets parallel with the Port. As is the case, in all new settlements, land is very cheap, so that attached to each house is a manzana under fence or surrounded by a wall, which is generally used as a deposit for turf. The houses are built with stone walls with shingle roofs. They are mostly built lengthwise, that is, with a great deal of frontage and little depth. In front of each house, and annexed to it, there is generally a glass gallery occupying all the space from one extremity to the other, so that all the dwellers in the house communicate on one side with the gallery, and on the other to the interior courtyards or patios, some of which are also covered. The two streets face to the North, and being built on the slope of a gentle hill, the houses of the second street look over those in the first, and at night when all these glass galleries are lighted up the light is very pretty.

From on board a ship in harbor during a calm night, under a clear sky, as is only to be seen in the proximity of the Poles, where the atmosphere is of an inconceivable transparency, with the top of the hills that surround it covered with snow, Stanley offers to the eyes of the traveller a most beautiful panorama.

THE INDIANS AT JUNIN.

Colonel Charras to the rescue.

So accustomed is the public of Buenos Ayres to hear of Indian invasions, that the subject nowadays attracts but slight notice. The following letter which Mr. Coffin has given to the press is however a document worthy of attention; it reveals to the people of Buenos Ayres the terribly insecure state of things in the district of Junin and the urgent necessity of increasing the forces at present on that exposed portion of the frontier. As will appear by the documents at foot hereof, the Indians have been soundly thrashed and their booty retaken; but we want more than the hurried telegram from Rojas to the Minister of War, to set the matter right before the public. Colonel Charras appears to have played his part well, but have the estancieros who have been robbed by the savages received back their hacienda? We trust the estancieros themselves will see the necessity of keeping the public well informed on this point, as the victory of the Indians is sterile indeed if the estancieros nevertheless have still to deplore the loss of their cattle. Then again, since it was so easy to overtake the savages and rescue the captives, why also is it not easy to keep them from entering altogether. The whole frontier business seems at best but a miserable piece of Government butchery; happily in this last affair the Indians have received a good lesson, but were the frontier troops on a proper efficient footing, we should look for a fight with the savages before they got in, and not after having sacked whole districts and on the way home to their toldos.

Mr. Bernard C. Coffin has received the following letter with full details of the recent Indian invasion on our north-west frontier.

Junin, Nov. 21st.

The Indians appeared within a league of the plaza of this town on the morning of the 19th, to the number of 400 or more, having coming in by 'Mula Colorada' and over-run the estancias of Saavedra Villafañe &c. as far as Morote; they swept all the country clean of cattle, and among the sufferers are the following:—

	Cows.	Mares.
Valerio Correa	800	200
Emilio Rodriguez	1500
Pedro Enestroza	1300	500
José Moreno	1000	50
Pantaleon Romero	400

Roque Vasquez	400	100
Montenegro	300	200
José Cordoba	300
Juan Calp	26	oxen
Diego Chaves	300
José Gomez	300	100

There are many others, such as Payon and Huergo, whose losses are not yet ascertained. The savages also burned down the house of Roque Vasquez, killing his capataz and a child. Among the captives they took were the wife and six children of a man named Carmona, a son of Lieut. Burezo and another of Sr. Chaves, both about 12 years old.

Some of the neighbours fought well: one overtook an Indian about a mile from the town and after a long struggle ran him through, then came up with another Indian and killed him, recovering also a troop of horses. bodies of three other Indians have been picked up near the town. The son of D. Pedro Enestroza behaved well; he armed fifteen men, three of them with lances, the rest with knives and 'bolas,' and charged twenty of the savages who were carrying off the wife of the Teniente Lopez and her three children, also 300 mares. The Indians fled and nine of Sr. Enestroza's men cleared out, nevertheless this heroic man followed up the savages with only five men and rescued the christians, besides getting back the mares. The Indians showed fight and Sr. Enestroza and his men were wounded in the fight.

Respecting your estancia I know nothing, no one from your place made his appearance. There is a rumour here that the Alcalde armed fifteen men, fought the Indians that came there, killing some and taking back all the cattle they were carrying off.

Imagine if you can, the state of the unfortunate people out here, having lost nearly their all, Nothing is talked of here, but a general clearing out since it is clear to-day the savages have entered within one league of the very Plaza of the town, to-morrow they will come into Rojas. The truth is, that this place which but yesterday was full of life and business, is to-day like a cemetary, and the general feeling here is, that every man must look out for himself.

I have purposely said nothing as yet about the military, because we are all waiting to hear of Charras having fought the Indians, and rescued the booty which they carried off, nevertheless it is now 3 o'clock a.m. of the 22nd, and not a word has been heard from him.

I will give you a succinct account of the military operations hereabouts, the brave National Guards were mustered and marched under Vasquez, Colonel Charras started to post himself three leagues further out, some 22 leagues from here. The Indians ignorant that the troops were at Ancaló, had chosen this spot for the nights encampment, they were therefore resting themselves when they discovered the fortification; about 50 of them started to reconoitre, but the troops opened fire on them, and soon sent them headlong back; Col. Charras at the same time was about three or four leagues further out; the Indians finding the troops raking them with cannon shot scattered in groups of 60, one gang swept off about 2,000 head of horned cattle going South, whilst the bulk of the 'Indiada' went West. Captain Vasquez, who was marching with the National Guards to Ancaló, met the savages about a league from the spot where they encamped; he at once challenged them, and finding that they were Indians charged them with such effect, that, he rescued the 2,000 cows, besides a number of horses.

So surprised were the Indians at being attacked at night, when they least expected it, that they fled, leaving behind lances, horses, and in fact, everything that they took with them. Vasquez in pursuing the savages that night, got lost with his guide in the Pampas, and only arrived at Ancalo at daybreak. Had he been able that night to have followed the rest of the Indians, he would have got back every thing from the savages.

Now, Charras was three leagues further out; he must have encountered the Indians at daybreak, and therefore it is that we await the news of a great victory. God grant that my hopes may be realized for the credit of the partido and of the National Government.

Yours truly,
ATALIBA ROCA.

The following is the official despatch received by the National Government announcing a decisive victory achieved by Col. Charras over the Indians.

Rojas, Nov, 22, 8 a.m.

To the Minister of War.

Inform the Minister of War that to-day letters have been received from Col. Charras, stating that between Mate and Ancalo at daybreak on the 20th he completely cut up the Indians, retaking all the booty which the savages were carrying off, and killing a great number of Indians; including the cacique in command. The Indians have left their horses, which were all for battle, 500 in number. I congratulate the Government on this splendid victory.

ATALIBA ROMA.

A MARCH IN PARAGUAY.

We are indebted to a gallant Argentine Commander no less expert in the use of the pen than the sword, for some interesting 'notes on the march.' "Caraguaytay destined to be known in history as one of the last points where Lopez made a stand, is a picturesque spot, perched on the brow of a semicircular range of hills. The entrance to the valley is shut off by a patch of marshy ground extending from the very banks of the Manduvira, where after the passage of Humaita, by the fleet, the Paraguayan squadron took refuge. So small were the Paraguayan vessels, compared to the enemy's fleet, that they could easily run up this shallow stream, into which the Brazilian monitors durst not enter."

"We left Caraguaytay on Sept. 11th at daybreak, marched through a fine grassy prairie, crossed the Mandurità two leagues above the town, the troops carrying their muskets and ammunition; the ford was not deep, nevertheless a small raft had to be constructed for the artillery and stores. The ground on the other side was marshy and we found it very nasty trudging up to our ankles in mud."

This march was made in three days; at midnight on the 13th we encamped just three leagues from the 'Paso Hondo' where we learned that a small picket of the enemy were entrenched, I picked out 200 infantry, which with a small park of Brazilian artillery were sent forward at 2 p.m. to dislodge the enemy. At 5 p.m. anticipating a stiff encounter we followed as a reserve, On our approach, the Paraguayans fled precipitately, leaving nine prisoners in our hands, several sheep and chickens.

At the time we could not have desired better spoil, and leaving the runaways to themselves, we now sat down to mess.

Next day we started, making a slight diversion which occasioned our recrossing the river. The pass was forty or fifty yards wide, but this would have given us little trouble, had we not been reinforced by so many women. The current was strong, and there being no boats, they had to be carried over by the soldiers. That night we encamped, but so damp was the camp, and so bothersome the flies, sleep was quite out of the question. We started before dawn, and marched all next day, the ground improving as we advanced. Within a couple of leagues of Caaguazú there is a small range of very steep hills; on the top of one of these, 500 feet above our heads, was perched another guard. A halt was called to rest the men and reconnoitre the spot before attacking. For this a Brazilian and an Argentine regiment were told off. Finding the place too strong to even attempt, all the forces were brought forward, and the trench was taken. The garrison to the number of 300 fell back on Jibú, driving the women and children before them. We could not follow for want of horses. Nothing was left for the victors, and for the next two days we had nothing to eat. By a strange coincidence we fell in with a woman in a terrible state of destitution and misery, who had been taken prisoner from our battalion in Tuyuti. Without further events worthy of note, we arrived here (Rosario) after a circuit of sixty four leagues. How far more we have to go remains to be seen; the object of the expedition is likewise mysterious.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

We have received reliable information respecting the fight that occurred last Sunday at the corner of Calles Maypú and Corrientes. It seems a notorious scoundred named Prudencio Gonzalez, better known by the nickname of "Gaucho Pobre", attempted to enter a house of ill-fame in Calle Maypú in spite of the landlord, who thereupon drew a revolver and fired at the assailant. At the same time Gaucho Pobre who was formerly a policeman, shewed fight with a long knife or 'facon,' but after some minutes ran away, the landlord running after him and calling for the police. A vigilante who was coming up tried to stop him, but Gaucho Pobre cut this poor man in several places; a second vigilante came to the aid of the wounded man, whereupon the Gaucho snapped his sabre from him and gave him a dreadful cut in the head. Then a third vigilante, an Englishman, came up and struck the assassin in the left hand and afterwards in the right arm, thus disabling him. The English vigilante, Mr. John Lemond, then took him to the Comisaria whence they despatched him in a cart to the Policia. He was afterwards sent to the Hospital, whence he will perhaps be discharged when he gets well: he will, however, lose the use of his left arm for life.

The police seized on Tuesday, thanks to the activity of Commissary Wright, a large gang of thieves, comprising seven noted scoundrels, of whom three were formerly policemen: these fellows committed a daring robbery a few days ago in Plaza 25 de Mayo, conveying away in carts all the contents of an auction-mart, which they took and hid in three houses of ill-fame. The booty was of a most varied character, and among the thieves were two women.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Pascal will sail to-morrow for Europe with mails and passengers; letters can be posted at the General Post-office up to 1 o'clock p.m., and at the Port Captain's till ½ past 1 o'clock. The West Coast homeward bound steamer is expected in Montevideo to-morrow, and will sail for Liverpool on same day; letters for Europe by this vessel can be despatched to Montevideo this evening by the local steamer.

The late raid by the Indians at Junin was more serious than generally supposed: 17000 head of cattle and three women were carried off. A despatch has been received at the War-Office stating that on the 20th Colonel Charras at the head of the troops in garrison on the frontier, overtook the savages about 24 leagues from Junin, cutting them to pieces, and killing their Cacique. The captives, stolen cattle, and 500 wild horses fell into the hands of the victors, and the Indians left a great number of dead on the field; a considerable number of captives were also taken.

Our colleague 'La Verdad' states in reference to the loss of the Peru on the Malvinas Isles that, "Commander Sasser, of the Argentine navy, who was appointed to enquire into the matter, has come to the conclusion that there can be no reasonable doubt of the criminality of the Captain, who had insured his vessel and part of her cargo for 300,000 francs, and had voluntarily and purposely destroyed her. Commander Sasser has collected ample documentary evidence, duly attested, to prove the fraud." We have had several communications in reference to the loss of the Peru, which we purpose commenting on an early occasion.

We take the following from our English exchanges:—

'A new religion' has been established in Russia, which fairly throws into the shade all the extraordinary proceedings of the many fanatical sects whose rapid increase has excited so much anxiety in Russia. The last new sect has been officially reported from the Government of Saratow. A few months ago the prophets of a new religion made their appearance in that part of the empire, preaching self-destruction by fire as the only sure salvation; and so readily was their dreadful doctrine received by the ignorant and superstitious peasantry, that in one large village no less than 1,700 persons assembled in some wooden houses, and having barricaded the doors and windows, set the building on fire, and perished in the flames. The authorities were doing all they could to stay the progress of this new madness, but their task is obviously a difficult one. The punishments which the law can inflict must have little terror for enthusiasts who deliberately choose a death so horrible as the true road to heaven.

Just as the last mail was leaving Europe, a tragedy in many ways resembling the Pantin murder had taken place at Brussels; the exact details had not then been published. All search for the body of Kinck, 'père,' had proved abortive. The Parisians are now tired of the Pantin murder, and the excitement concerning it has died out.

The new branch of the Western Railway to Lobos is now completed to within five leagues of that town. Don Mariano Acosta, who is president of the committee appointed for allotting the land necessary for the works, has returned from Lobos, where he had marked out the site for the terminus. It is situated three squares north of the Plaza. This important feeder to the Western line may be expected to be thrown open to the public in two or three months.

It is announced from San Juan that the ex-Governor, Sr, Zavalla, has been placed in prison; the exact cause for his arrest is not yet known.

Police reform is now exciting the attention of all thinking men, amongst us. Until something vigorous is done in this direction, we may expect a continuance of the murders and robberies so rife within the last three weeks. The late vote of the Chambers increasing by 100 the number of vigilantes will effect no more than a slight relief to the men at present in the force, who in some sections are often on duty for forty-eight consecutive hours. The number and pay of the men must be still increased, if the 'morale' and efficiency of our Metropolitan Police is to be improved. The comisarios have lately had their pay raised, but the overworked constables are left to exist as best they can on $700 a month. The majority of the men, strange to say, are Paraguayans; there are also a few English, Scotch, and Americans.

A treaty for the extradition of criminals has been signed between the Argentine Republic and Brazil. Fraudulent speculators will have to choose some other spot for enjoying their ill-gotten gains in future, as we trust the newly signed treaty will prove elastic enough to reach them.

Thousands of photographs purporting to be those of Jean Kinck, the missing head of the family murdered at Pantin, had been sold in Paris and the provinces before the lynx-eyed French detectives discovered that an old portrait of the Hungarian patriot Deak was doing duty for that of the missing man. An enormous profit was made by the originators before the deception was discovered.

A meeting composed of the principal proprietors, brokers, shopkeepers, &c., in and around the Plaza Constitucion took place on Tuesday for the purpose of bringing under the notice of the Municipality the wretched state of the streets leading to that Plaza, the centre of all business at the South side of the city. The meeting was most numerously and respectably attended, and, after some remarks from the principal business men present, appointed a committee of seven gentlemen to wait on the Lord Mayor, and impress on him the vital necessity existing in the interests of the neighbourhood, of having the street at once repaired.

A fire of considerable magnitude had broken out at Humaita, just pre-

THE ONLY CURE FOR ROT IN SHEEP.

A Certain destroyer for Maggots, in all Class of Animals.

Let the Sheep infected with this disease in the feet be put into a dry place; after remaining an hour, take a brush and clean the dirt from between the claws, then shaking the bottle well, dip a stick or feather into the liquid, and annoint the diseased part all over, after which let them stand dry for an hour. If properly applied, one application is generally sufficient.
To destroy maggots it may be used in the same manner, but sometimes it requires to be applied three times; it also cures all sorts of ulcers arising from them, and may be applied to any part to prevent the flies from forming maggots.
Experience has proved it to be the best preventive that can be applied after castrating stallions, and one application of the liquid may save a valuable life.

Since our last the Bill for authorizing the Government to maintain an additional force of 1,500 men on the frontier, and for a grant of $f.500,000 for the expenses of the war has passed both Houses. The postal convention with the Argentine Republic has passed the Senate, and several clauses of the Extradition treaty with the same country have been advanced a stage.

A Bill providing for the establishment of a court of First Instance at Freirina has passed the House of Deputies, as also the Bill for authorizing the Government to raise a loan of $f.4,000,000 for the construction of the Chilian and Talcahuano Railway. The Bill for granting a sum of $f.20,000 to the bishops, who have gone to Rome, in order to attend the Ecumenical Council, has also been before the House of Deputies, but no decision has been arrived at; nevertheless, its passage through the Houses will, in all probability, only be delayed for a few days longer.

We continue to receive from all parts of the country the most satisfactory reports with regard to the appearance of the crops, and a very abundant harvest may be safely predicted.

The President of Equador issued a decree under date of the 15th September, ordering the new tariff to take effect from the 1st ult. The National Convention has authorized the President to purchase two war vessels, to build a first class lighthouse on Santa Clara island, and two second class, one at Punta Arenas, and another at Punta Mandinga. He has also been authorized to lay down bell buoys on the coast and in the rivers.

Considerable alarm prevailed at Guayaquil at the date of the latest advices, owing to the Falb prophecy, and the Bishop of that place ordered prayers to be offered up in all the churches. On the 16th of September a smart shock of earthquake, preceded and followed by a strong wind, was felt at Guayaquil.

The Supreme Court has confirmed a decision of the Judge of the First Instance of Copiapo, ordering the property of the late Alexander P. Tivy, who died intestate in September of last year, to be delivered up to his mother, Mrs. Maria Tivy, residing in the county of Waterford, Ireland. The value of the property is estimated at $f.40,000.

A letter box is about to be established at the settlement of Punta Arenas.

The Bishop of Honolulu and family, and his chaplain, the Rev. Lord Chas. Hervey, arrived at Panamá on the 4th ult., and were to leave for San Francisco, en route for Honolulu, on the 9th ult.

We feel pleasure in being able to inform our readers that it has been officially announced that a reduction of 25 per cent is about to be made in the rates of postage between the West Coast of South America and Great Britain. The charge, which has hitherto been 2s per half ounce, will hereafter be reduced to 1s 6d. The rate is still too high, and we do not anticipate any very gratifying results from the proposed reduction; if, however, it were reduced to 1s the half ounce, we are of opinion the great increase in correspondence that would ensue would more than compensate for the difference between the old and new rate, besides which, there can be no doubt that the reduction would operate very beneficially upon the commercial interests of the West Coast Republics and Great Britain.

From Iquique we learn that considerable alarm again prevailed among a great portion of the inhabitants, owing to rumonrs that had been industriously circulated to the effect that great irruptions of the sea and earthquakes would take place between the 20th and 24th inst. The public schools, which were closed by order of the authorities previous to the dreaded time announced by Falb, are about to be reopened. The heat has been very great during the past few days, and the local print calls upon the sanitary committee to appoint commissions to make domiciliary visits for the purpose of enforcing cleanliness among the inhabitants, the majority of whom are of very dirty habits, and not unfrequently keep pigs and other animals in their houses. The law making it obligatory to use the decimal system went into force on the 20th ult. Several shocks of earthquake have been felt lately, one on the 18th, at 3.20 a.m., having been very strong. The volcano Isluga is sending forth daily increasing columns of smoke of a fetid nature.

We have no great change to advise in the state of our money market during the past fortnight.

The banks continue the same rate of discount as mentioned in our last with a similar fair demand.

The rates of exchange on London and Paris have been altered a little, as will be seen by our annexed quotations, on England 16.

We have heard it rumored that the Directory of the Bank of Valparaiso have it in contemplation to increase the nominal capital of the bank to six million of dollars, its present subscribed capital being only two millions; if this alteration be carried into effect, it will, if possible, increase the confidence of the public with regard to its issue of notes, and also enable the directory to advantageously extend the business of the bank.

Our share market has somewhat revived lately, with a tendency in many instances to improvement in prices.—West Coast Mail.

THE FALKLAND ISLANDS.

(Extracts from the Letter of a Traveller.)

Having been commissioned by Mr Bernardo Delfino, agent in Buenos Ayres of the Association of Mutual Insurance of Italian Merchant Navy, to report officially upon the wreck, burning, and abandonment of the Italian barque Peru, I took a passage in the early part of July on board the English schooner Foam, bound for Stanley, the capital of the Falkland Islands. Having been favored by winds from the N.N.E. and N.W., we reached our destination in 14 days.

Stanley has a population of from 500 to 600 inhabitants, and it is the seat of government. It possesses an excellent harbour, which is surrounded by a semi-circle of hills covered with snow, with an opening from 250 to 300 yards wide. This mouth is the only ingress and egress for ships to communicate with Port William. The harbour of Stanley is a port at the end of another immense port.

Vessels go alongside the three or four moles that exist in front of the town, where there is from 18 to 36 feet of water.

The barbour is perfectly sheltered and calm when a gale is blowing outside.

The approach to Port William is rather dangerous, on account of the many rocks that exist near the surface of the water.

A fine lighthouse has been built at the extremity of Cape Pembroke, which is the most easterly point of the island. The tower is made of iron, and 80 feet high; it is of a circular form painted with large white and red stripes, which are visible in daytime for a great distance.

The position of the lighthouse is 51° 40′ 42″ south latitude, and 57° 41′ 48″ west longitude, Greenwich, and in fair weather the light, which is fixed, can be seen 16 or 18 miles off from all directions, except on the western or Port William side.

Stanley was founded by the English in the year 1833, if I mistake not. As I have already stated, it is the seat of Government, which is composed of—

1st. A Governor, the immediate Representative of the Queen of England.

2nd. A Stipendiary Magistrate appointed by the Crown.

3rd. A military commander, with a garrison of thirty-five men under his orders.

4th. A shipping master.

There is besides a Colonial Council, composed of seven individuals, who assist the magistrate in extraordinary cases.

There are two surgeons, one military, the other civil, a clergyman, a schoolmaster, a schoolmistress, and a jailer, who are in the Crown's pay.

There is no Custom House or anything resembling it.

Stanley is a free port.

Any ship of any nationality can embark or land goods and merchandise without anybody asking what they are or what they cost.

Besides the small garrison just mentioned, Stanley has a battery "á fleur d'eau," which commands the harbour. This battery is armed with 3 pieces.

The commerce of the Falklands consists in regard to exports of Penguin's oil, hides of ox, seal and sea lion, and wool. The vegetable productions are almost nil. It is with great difficulty that a bad class of potatoes is grown, and these, with meat, which is very abundant, form the principal and most common food of the inhabitants.

Two large islands separated by a navigable canal form the most important part of what is known as the Falkland Islands. They are distinguished by the name of East and West Falkland. In the former is Stanley. The soil is very mountainous, and there is but scanty grazing land. What is not hilly is marshy ground, with immense quagmires in which a man on horseback will be swallowed up horse and all, if by misfortune he leaves the beaten track or loses it under the snow.

Nature in her wise dispositions has made what would appear a cause of poverty one of wealth for the inhabitants at East Falkland. The boggy land of the plains makes an excellent fuel, which is a very good substitute for coal. This fuel is used in all the houses both by the rich and the poor. During the autumn months the poor go and cut, and the rich send to have cut square blocks of this turf in sufficient quantity to last for a whole year These square sods, which are from eight to ten inches long by three deep, are piled up in large mounds, and after being exposed for a month to the action of the sun make a fuel which gives as much heat as coal, though not of equal duration.

It strikes me that this turf, mixed with voluminous substance might be successfully used in lieu of coal for steam navigation. The experiment all worth might be worth a trial.

The town of Stanley is composed solely of two streets parallel with the Port. As is the case, in all new settlements, land is very cheap, so that attached to each house is a manzana under fence or surrounded by a wall, which is generally used as a deposit for turf. The houses are built with stone walls with shingle roofs. They are mostly built lengthwise, that is, with a great deal of frontage and little depth. In front of each house, and annexed to it, there is generally a glass gallery occupying all the space from one extremity to the other, so that all the dwellers in the house communicate on one side with the gallery, and on the other to the interior courtyards or patios, some of which are also covered. The two streets face to the North, and being built on the slope of a gentle hill, the houses of the second street look over those in the first, and at night when all these glass galleries are lighted up the light is very pretty.

From on board a ship in harbor during a calm night, under a clear sky, as is only to be seen in the proximity of the Poles, where the atmosphere is of an inconceivable transparency, with the top of the hills that surround it covered with snow, Stanley offers to the eyes of the traveller a most beautiful panorama.

THE INDIANS AT JUNIN.

Colonel Charras to the rescue.

So accustomed is the public of Buenos Ayres to hear of Indian invasions, that the subject nowadays attracts but slight notice. The following letter which Mr. Coffin has given to the press is however a document worthy of attention; it reveals to the people of Buenos Ayres the terribly insecure state of things in the district of Junin and the urgent necessity of increasing the forces at present on that exposed portion of the frontier. As will appear by the documents at foot hereof, the Indians have been soundly thrashed and their booty retaken; but we want more than the hurried telegram from Rojas to the Minister of War, to set the matter right before the public. Colonel Charras appears to have played his part well, but have the estancieros who have been robbed by the savages received back their hacienda? We trust the estancieros themselves will see the necessity of keeping the public well informed on this point, as the victory of the Indians is sterile indeed if the estancieros nevertheless have still to deplore the loss of their cattle. Then again, since it was so easy to overtake the savages and rescue the captives, why also is it not easy to keep them from entering altogether. The whole frontier business seems at best but a miserable piece of Government butchery; happily in this last affair the Indians have received a good lesson, but were the frontier troops on a proper efficient footing, we should look for a fight with the savages before they got in, and not after having sacked whole districts and on the way home to their toldos.

Mr. Bernard C. Coffin has received the following letter with full details of the recent Indian invasion on our north-west frontier.

Junin, Nov. 21st.

The Indians appeared within a league of the plaza of this town on the morning of the 19th, to the number of 400 or more, having coming in by 'Mula Colorada' and over-run the estancias of Saavedra Villafañe &c. as far as Morote: they swept all the country clean of cattle, and among the sufferers are the following:—

	Cows.	Mares.
Valerio Correa	800	200
Emilio Rodriguez	1500
Pedro Enestroza	1300	500
José Moreno	1000	50
Pantaleon Romero	400
Silvestre Arias	500
Luis Denis	400
Pedro Suizo	200	100
Teleforo Brandan,	700	150
Dolores G. Mitre	2000	200
Francisco Molina	2800	200
Geronimo Castro	300
Lucila Ochagavia	500
Tomas Saavedra	2300	100
his capataz	500
Placido Aragon	800	100
Owén Lynch	500
Patricio Reparás	116
Roque Vasquez	400	100
Montenegro	300	200
José Cordoba	300
Juan Calp	26	oxen
Diego Chaves	300
José Gomez	300	100

There are many others, such as Payon and Huergo, whose losses are not yet ascertained. The savages also burned down the house of Roque Vasquez, killing his capataz and a child. Among the captives they took were the wife and six children of a man named Carmona, a son of Lieut. Burezo and another of Sr. Chaves, both about 12 years old.

Some of the neighbours fought well: one overtook an Indian about a mile from the town and after a long struggle ran him through, then came up with another Indian and killed him, recovering also a troop of horses. bodies of three other Indians have been picked up near the town. The son of D. Pedro Enestroza behaved well; he armed fifteen men, three of them with lances, the rest with knives and 'bolas,' and charged twenty of the savages who were carrying off the wife of the Teniente Lopez and her three children, also 300 mares. The Indians fled and nine of Sr. Enestroza's men cleared out, nevertheless this heroic man followed up the savages with only five men and rescued the christians, besides getting back the mares. The Indians showed fight and Sr. Enestroza and his men were wounded in the fight.

Respecting your estancia I know nothing, no one from your place made his appearance, There is a rumour here that the Alcalde armed fifteen men, fought the Indians that came there, killing some and taking back all the cattle they were carrying off.

Imagine if you can, the state of the unfortunate people out here, having lost nearly their all, Nothing is talked of here, but a general clearing out since it is clear to-day the savages have entered within one league of the very Plaza of the town, to-morrow they will come into Rojas. The truth is, that this place which but yesterday was full of life and business, is to-day like a cemetary, and the general feeling here is, that every man must look out for himself.

I have purposely said nothing as yet about the military, because we are all waiting to hear of Charras having fought the Indians, and rescued the booty which they carried off, nevertheless it is now 3 o'clock a.m. of the 22nd, and not a word has been heard from him.

I will give you a succinct account of the military operations hereabouts, the brave National Guards were mustered and marched under Vasquez, Colonel Charras started to post himself three leagues further out, some 22 leagues from here. The Indians ignorant that the troops were at Ancaló, had chosen this spot for the nights encampment, they were therefore resting themselves when they discovered the fortification; about 50 of them started to reconoitre, but the troops opened fire on them, and soon sent them headlong back; Col. Charras at the same time was about three or four leagues further out; the Indians finding the troops raking them with cannon shot scattered in groups of 60, one gang swept off about 2,000 head of horned cattle going South, whilst the bulk of the 'Indiada' went West. Captain Vasquez, who was marching with the National Guards to Ancaló, met the savages about a league from the spot where they encamped; he at once challenged them, and finding that they were Indians charged them with such effect, that, he rescued the 2,000 cows, besides a number of horses.

So surprised were the Indians at being attacked at night, when they least expected it, that they fled, leaving behind lances, horses, and in fact, everything that they took with them. Vasquez in pursuing the savages that night, got lost with his guide in the Pampas, and only arrived at Ancalo at daybreak. Had he been able that night to have followed the rest of the Indians, he would have got back every thing from the savages.

Now, Charras was three leagues further out; he must have encountered the Indians at daybreak, and therefore it is that we await the news of a great victory. God grant that my hopes may be realized for the credit of the partido and of the National Government.

Yours truly,
ATALIBA ROCA.

The following is the official despatch received by the National Government announcing a decisive victory achieved by Col. Charras over the Indians.

Rojas, Nov, 22, 8 a.m.

To the Minister of War.

Inform the Minister of War that to-day letters have been received from Col. Charras, stating that between Mate and Ancalo at daybreak on the 20th he completely cut up the Indians, retaking all the booty which the savages were carrying off, and killing a great number of Indians; including the cacique in command. The Indians have left their horses, which were all for battle, 500 in number. I congratulate the Government on this splendid victory.

ATALIBA ROMA.

A MARCH IN PARAGUAY.

We are indebted to a gallant Argentine Commander no less expert in the use of the pen than the sword, for some interesting 'notes on the march.' "Caraguaytay destined to be known in history as one of the last points where Lopez made a stand, is a picturesque spot, perched on the brow of a semicircular range of hills. The entrance to the valley is shut off by a patch of marshy ground extending from the very banks of the Manduvira, where after the passage of Humaita, by the fleet, the Paraguayan squadron took refuge. So small were the Paraguayan vessels, compared to the enemy's fleet, that they could easily run up this shallow stream, into which the Brazilian monitors durst not enter."

"We left Caraguaytay on Sept. 11th at daybreak, marched through a fine grassy prairie, crossed the Mandurita two leagues above the town, the troops carrying their muskets and ammunition; the ford was not deep, nevertheless a small raft had to be constructed for the artillery and stores. The ground on the other side was marshy and we found it very nasty trudging up to our ankles in mud."

This march was made in three days; at midnight on the 13th we encamped just three leagues from the 'Paso Hondo' where we learned that a small picket of the enemy were entrenched, I picked out 200 infantry, which with a small park of Brazilian artillery were sent forward at 2 p.m. to dislodge the enemy. At 5 p.m. anticipating a stiff encounter we followed as a reserve, On our approach, the Paraguayans fled precipitately, leaving nine prisoners in our hands, several sheep and chickens.

At the time we could not have desired better spoil, and leaving the runaways to themselves, we now sat down to mess.

Next day we started, making a slight diversion which occasioned our recrossing the river. The pass was forty or fifty yards wide, but this would have given us little trouble, had we not been reinforced by so many women. The current was strong, and there being no boats, they had to be carried over by the soldiers. That night we encamped, but so damp was the camp, and so bothersome the flies, sleep was quite out of the question. We started before dawn, and marched all next day, the ground improving as we advanced. Within a couple of leagues of Caaguazú there is a small range of very steep hills; on the top of one of these, 500 feet above our heads, was perched another guard. A halt was called to rest the men and reconnoitre the spot before attacking. For this a Brazilian and an Argentine regiment were told off, Finding the place too strong to even attempt, all the forces were brought forward, and the trench was taken. The garrison to the number of 300 fell back on Jibú, driving the women and children before them. We could not follow for want of horses. Nothing was left for the victors, and for the next two days we had nothing to eat. By a strange coincidence we fell in with a woman in a terrible state of destitution and misery, who had been taken prisoner from our battalion in Tuyuti. Without further events worthy of note, we arrived here (Rosario) after a circuit of sixty four leagues. How far more we have to go remains to be seen; the object of the expedition is likewise mysterious.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

We have received reliable information respecting the fight that occurred last Sunday at the corner of Calles Maypú and Corrientes. It seems a notorious scoundred named Prudencio Gonzalez, better known by the nickname of "Gaucho Pobre", attempted to enter a house of ill-fame in Calle Maypú in spite of the landlord, who thereupon drew a revolver and fired at the assailant. At the same time Gaucho Pobre who was formerly a policeman, shewed fight with a long knife or 'facon,' but after some minutes ran away. the landlord running after him and calling for the police. A vigilante who was coning up tried to stop him, but Gaucho Pobre cut this poor man in several places; a second vigilante came to the aid of the wounded man, whereupon the Gaucho snapped his sabre from him and gave him a dreadful cut in the head. Then a third vigilante, an Englishman, came up and struck the assassin in the left hand and afterwards in the right arm, thus disabling him. The English vigilante, Mr. John Lemonid, then took him to the Comisaria whence they despatched him in a cart to the Policia. He was afterwards sent to the Hospital, whence he will perhaps be discharged when he gets well: he will, however, lose the use of his left arm for life.

The police seized on Tuesday, thanks to the activity of Commissary Wright, a large gang of thieves, comprising seven noted scoundrels, of whom three were formerly policemen: these fellows committed a daring robbery a few days ago in Plaza 25 de Mayo, conveying away in carts all the contents of an auction-mart, which they took and hid in three houses of ill-fame. The booty was of a most varied character, and among the thieves were two women.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Pascal will sail to-morrow for Europe with mails and passengers; letters can be posted at the General Post-office up to 1 o'clock p.m., and at the Port Captain's till ½ past 1 o'clock. The West Coast homeward bound steamer is expected in Montevideo to-morrow, and will sail for Liverpool on same day; letters for Europe by this vessel can be despatched to Montevideo this evening by the local steamer.

The late raid by the Indians at Junin was more serious than generally supposed: 17000 head of cattle and three women were carried off. A despatch has been received at the War-Office stating that on the 20th Colonel Charras at the head of the troops in garrison on the frontier, overtook the savages about 24 leagues from Junin, cutting them to pieces, and killing their Cacique. The captives, stolen cattle, and 500 wild horses fell into the hands of the victors, and the Indians left a great number of dead on the field; a considerable number of captives were also taken.

Our colleague 'La Verdad' states in reference to the loss of the Peru on the Malvinas Isles that, "Commander Sasser, of the Argentine navy, who was appointed to enquire into the matter, has come to the conclusion that there can be no reasonable doubt of the criminality of the Captain, who had insured his vessel and part of her cargo for 300,000 francs, and had voluntarily and purposely destroyed her. Commander Sasser has collected ample documentary evidence, duly attested, to prove the fraud." We have had several communications in reference to the loss of the Peru, which we purpose commenting on an early occasion.

We take the following from our English exchanges:—

'A new religion' has been established in Russia, which fairly throws into the shade all the extraordinary proceedings of the many fanatical sects whose rapid increase has excited so much anxiety in Russia. The last new sect has been officially reported from the Government of Saratow. A few months ago the prophets of a new religion made their appearance in that part of the empire, preaching self-destruction by fire as the only sure salvation; and so readily was their dreadful doctrine received by the ignorant and superstitious peasantry, that in one large village no less than 1,700 persons assembled in some wooden houses, and having barricaded the doors and windows, set the building on fire, and perished in the flames The authorities were doing all they could to stay the progress of this new madness, but their task is obviously a difficult one. The punishments which the law can inflict must have little terror for enthusiasts who deliberately choose a death so horrible as the true road to heaven.

Just as the last mail was leaving Europe, a tragedy in many ways resembling the Pantin murder had taken place at Brussels; the exact details had not then been published. All search for the body of Kinck, 'pere,' had proved abortive. The Parisians are now tired of the Pantin murder, and the excitement concerning it has died out.

The new branch of the Western Railway to Lobos is now completed to within five leagues of that town. Don Mariano Acosta, who is president of the committee appointed for allotting the land necessary for the works, has returned from Lobos, where he had marked out the site for the terminus. It is situated three squares north of the Plaza. This important feeder to the Western line may be expected to be thrown open to the public in two or three months.

It is announced from San Juan that the ex-Governor, Sr, Zavalla, has been placed in prison; the exact cause for his arrest is not yet known.

Police reform is now exciting the attention of all thinking men, amongst us. Until something vigorous is done in this direction, we may expect a continuance of the murders and robberies so rife within the last three weeks. The late vote of the Chambers increasing by 100 the number of vigilantes will effect no more than a slight relief to the men at present in the force, who in some sections are often on duty for forty-eight consecutive hours. The number and pay of the men must be still increased, if the 'morale' and efficiency of our Metropolitan Police is to be improved. The comisarios have lately had their pay raised, but the overworked constables are left to exist as best they can on $700 a month. The majority of the men, strange to say, are Paraguayans; there are also a few English, Scotch, and Americans.

A treaty for the extradition of criminals has been signed between the Argentine Republic and Brazil. Fraudulent speculators will have to choose some other spot for enjoying their ill-gotten gains in future, as we trust the newly signed treaty will prove elastic enough to reach them.

Thousands of photographs purporting to be those of Jean Kinck, the missing head of the family murdered at Pantin, had been sold in Paris and the provinces before the lynx-eyed French detectives discovered that an old portrait of the Hungarian patriot Deak was doing duty for that of the missing man. An enormous profit was made by the originators before the deception was discovered.

A meeting composed of the principal proprietors, brokers, shopkeepers, &c., in and around the Plaza Constitucion took place on Tuesday for the purpose of bringing under the notice of the Municipality the wretched state of the streets leading to that Plaza, the centre of all business at the South side of the city. The meeting was most numerously and respectably attended, and, after some remarks from the principal business men present, appointed a committee of seven gentlemen to wait on the Lord Mayor, and impress on him the vital necessity existing in the interests of the neighbourhood, of having the street at once repaired.

vions to the starting of the Goya down the river. No details are as yet to hand, but when the steamer left fifteen houses had already been destroyed by the flames.

Two prominent frequenters of the Bolsa had a dispute on Tuesday, which they proposed to settle with the time honoured assistance of 'pistols and coffee': they 'made tracks' for the beach with the most sanguinary intentions, but through the interference of some friends, an appeal to hair triggers was dispensed with, and they subsequently had recourse to a cup of fragrant Moka in a neighbouring cafe.

The 'Capital' of Rosario says that the works on the Central Argentine Railway are now sufficiently advanced to enable the Directors to calculate with certainty on being able to open the line through to Cordova in the month of February next.

We have to thank our colleague the Republica for the very able manner in which it treated the question of Trial by Jury, in yesterday's issue. Sooner or later the people of this country will have to recur to trial by jury in all criminal cases. The present system carried on at the Cabildo has had a sufficient trial, and is proved to be bad; the sooner we abolish it therefore the better. We hail it as a sign of the times to see a Spanish newspaper advocating jury trial, for years we have called attention to the imperative necessity of this reform; let us hope that our influential colleague will succeed. We want open courts and viva voce evidence: the Star Chamber system so long in vogue here is but a cloak for crime. We fully agree with our colleague that if the Governor, legislators, or Ministers do not at once take this matter up, the public will very soon find an alternative by a recurrence to Judge Lynch. Even now in the country districts Lynch law whenever practicable is adapted: only last week the murderer of Sr. Estrada in the Banda Oriental, was caught and at once Lynched; in the Higueritas another noted assassin was Lynched; out at Lujan not long ago the Justice of the Peace ordered his policemen to Lynch a cut-throat; the fellow was shot down, and his body brought in and exhibited for twelve hours at the Policia; since then the partido has enjoyed peace and order. The plan of catching a murderer and sending him in to the city for trial is now scouted by everyone in the country districts. We hope the 'Republica' will keep at the subject, and help us to obtain the jury trial reform.

The Halley left yesterday, taking no passengers and one-third cargo. This is not surprising, however, as there are at present in port no less than four steamers of the Astronomical line. Lieut. Lecky, R.N.R., who has gained such a wide reputation since the snake affair at Tijuca, is the commander of this favorite steamer. We hope to see him soon back in the Plate, where he has already a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Ledingham, who has recently come out from Europe, for the purpose of starting a meat preserving establishment, leaves in the Pascal. We understand that he has applied to the Government for certain concessions, which can only be granted by Congress. The matter, therefore, stands until the next session. This is the old story.

Those interested in Bahia Blanca lands, will learn with pleasure that Governor Castro has sent in a proposed law to the Chambers, authorizing the Government to give free grants of land to all European settlers who wish to start down there. This is really a splendid move, and much of its merit is due to the active exertions of Sr. Don Jose Martinez de Hoz.

A very splendid and comprehensive agricultural and immigration scheme is now on the tapis in this city. As the matter is exclusively in the hands of merchants and private parties, we feel sanguine as to its success. Luckily the enterprize is completely and absolutely independent of Government or Legislative ergo, it must succeed.

Mr. Bankart, of the Cañapiru Mining has arrived in town. We hope to hear a favorable report of this important enterprize. Montevideo wants gold, and Mr. Bankart offers to supply it liberally from the mines of Cuñapiru.

'Les absents ont toujours tort.'—A number of disagreeable stories have been set afloat by our colleagues respecting Madame Ristori's propensity for taking care of the pence, even when others have a claim on a few of them. They may or may not be well founded, but it would have been more straightforward to ventilate them while she was here, than to raise a hue and cry the moment her back is turned.

Some of the Argentine bishops have already arrived in Rome; amongst them Dr. Achaval, who, from his speaking Latin fluently, is expected to play an important part in the forthcoming council. He is said to have already broached the subject of mixed marriages in this Republic at the Vatican, and is hoping that the permission of the Holy See may be obtained.

We have again to call attention to the disgraceful state of the mole. A young lady, when coming asbore from one of the steamers on Tuesday morning, fell through one of the numerous holes in this ricketty structure; one of her legs got wedged in between the planks and men had to be summoned from the Port Captain s to raise them before she could be extricated. It is seemingly useless to appeal to the authorities to have this pier repaired. Prime Ministers, Governors, Congressmen and even Bishops, have had hair breadth escapes, and now we have an unprotected female of sweet sixteen nearly killed. If this last accident does not move the stony official hearts, we give up the repairing of the 'holes in the mole as a bad job.'

At a judicial sale held on the 21st inst., three leagues from Lobos, half a league of fine pasture land, with brick house, corrales, &c., was sold for 140,000 dollars mjc. to Don Juan Manuel Carranza, a trader in that town. This is regarded as a dead bargain, the buildings alone having cost as much originally. We understand that the lucky purchaser is about to sell it again at a small profit, he not having stock to work it. This is a fine opportunity for intending sheepfarmers.

The Committee of the Jockey Club, at a meeting held on Tuesday night, fixed the program of a second spring meeting, to take place at Belgrano on the 8th of next month. It will be found in another column, and our sporting friends will see that two novelties have been introduced—a trotting sweepstakes and a tilbury match. In certain circles, and particularly among the barraqueros, this last event is creating great interest; and we understand that very heavy wagers have been already booked about it. The two gigs, we understand, will go round the course in opposite directions, and the drivers will toss before starting for who takes the inside place when they meet, as they have to go twice round the course.

VERIFICATION OF ACCOUNTS.

We have been requested to publish the following:—

Barracas, Oct. 5th 1869.

Señor D. E. Rouquaud,

Dear Sir.

The verification of the accounts sent in to you by Messrs. Moore, Punch & Tudor, give the following results:—

1st. Instead of your owing them $f. 4687. 27cts.. as appears by the account handed you by said firm; they owe you $f. 1480, for the oil bought by them.

2nd. As regards the oil despatched for your account, there is a balance in your favour of about $800.

3rd. The $11,276 advanced on your bill of lading for oil of July 31st, is an error, as your invoice is in possession of the firm.

4th. Respecting the despatch of your oil on 29th December 1865, I have been unable to find any entries in the books of said firm, therefore the oil in question must have been embarked on board the ship Nightingale, bought by them from you.

5th. The expenses in Buenos Ayres paid by you, as proved by the receipts, must be deducted.

6th. The remainder of the oil they say has not been sold, being in bad condition, nevertheless Messrs. Moore & Co., a year after their last despatch for your account, ask from you in April 12th, 1869, a certificate for mares grease sold by Sr. Aridti as is found by the 'Esgardo.'

7th. The memorandum of Messrs. Moore & Co., that the name of their firm ensures a good sale for their oil both in London and Liverpool; nevertheless it is not sold! The contradiction between this and the memorandum of 12th April, 1869, may perhaps be understood by some people. How is this?

8. The oil sold to Messrs. Moore in February, 1869, they deny having purchased, although you are in possession of a document which these gentlemen are ignorant of, proving the contrary.

9. Your first conveyance is dated December 29, 1865, theirs in June, 1866; how can this be explained? You can draw your own conclusions, and act as appears best.

10. The account returned by Messrs. Moore charges you with $f.4,687; their books show only a balance of $3,000, which proves the difference.

True Copy.

ENRIQUE BERNHART.

National Bonds	61⅞

National Bonds still rule firm, and prices still look up. The sales are small, but from the general tone of the market, it would appear that there are more buyers than sellers. The cash sales amounted only to four thousand at 61⅞.—For December 31st, 45,000 at 62½—for the end of the year there seems to be some speculation. Sales were made to day at 62½, but prices afterwards fell off to 62½.

For March 31, 10,000, at 61.

Total sales, 60,000.

Respecting the Indian invasion at Junin further advices were received to-day from Mr. Coffin's estancia; the mayordomo discovered the presence of the savages in time to attack them with the shearers and the neighbours. The savages only numbered 23; they were beaten off 13 saddle horses taken, also 7 lassoes, 3 lances, one Indian killed. The invasion in question has caused widespread alarm outside.

The creditors of the Van Praet estate are becoming anxious to know about the final liquidation of this estate, and wish to know how the affair stands.

In the wool market to-day there was a very brisk business done. At the Plaza Onco de Setiembre, Mr. M. Duggan sold eighteen thousand ar. at from 48 to 55. Messrs. Unsuo sold six thousand ar. at from 43 to 48, and the other brokers Messrs. Raffo, Fernandez, Fallon and others about 10,000 ar. at from 43 to 56. Wools now keep coming in fast, but the market is extremely firm, and all good wools move off at once. The prices paid in the South Plaza are even higher than in the north. To-day several fine lots were sold at from 55 to 60. The very splendid lot of wool from Mr. John Brown's estancia Lujan has arrived in the North Plaza.

The steamer Patagones leaves the port of Montevideo for Liverpool on the morning of the 26th inst., and should she arrive to-day will not leave before the hour named. Passengers leaving this city on the 25th will be in time.

The telegram from Montevideo announced exchange on London at 51, on France at 5.10 One thousand dozen sheepskins at 62. In wool sales nothing.

Messrs Green, LeRossignol, and Co. advise us that the steamer Galileo, the mail boat of the 9th December, will load here for Antwerp, landing her passengers and mails at Southampton.

The steamer Kepler leaves to-day, 25th, for Antwerp, with a full cargo.

The steamer Cassini, now loading in port, leaves on Saturday, 27th inst., for Havre.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND Co.
101--Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling. in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

PALMAM QUI MERUIT FERAT.

PENEDOS VEGETABLE SYRUP.
THE MOST CERTAIN AND SPEEDY REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED FOR ALL DISORDERS OF THE CHEST, ASTHMA AND CONSUMPTION.

No other diseases sweep away so many thousands as ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION, and not because of any want of means of checking them, on their first approach if those attacked would adopt proper remedies early, but, unfortunately, these are neglected, and recourse is not had until the disease is firmly established in the Lungs, from whence (until lately) Physicians had not discovered any means of dislodging it. Professor Penedo's Syrup supplies now that DESIDERATUM to sufferers, as the rapidly extending fame of this Preparation testifies it.

COLDS, PAIN IN THE CHEST, SHORTNESS OF BREATH, PHLEGM, AND INFLUENZA.

A difficulty of breathing, or a sense of tightness or pain in THE CHEST after exertion, a cough or an expectoration of phlegm, however slight at first, will surely prove the germ from which one or other fatal diseases will take their rise, if not early removed, in such cases,

PENEDO'S VEGETABLE SYRUP must be taken three times a-day, as directed, or oftener, according to the urgency of the symptoms, and this will be found sufficient for the cure of all recent affections of the Lungs.

COUGHS.

This severe and most dangerous disease very frequently becomes most troublesome, which, if not ending in Consumption or Asthma, proves most distressing and weakening up to the patient.

PENEDO'S VEGETABLE SYRUP should be taken until it is entirely removed, which it will speedily do if taken regularly.

WEAKNESS OF THE VOICE AND HOARSENESS.

In all cases where the diseases have occurred suddenly from Colds, exertion of the Voice, &c. PENEDO'S VEGETAALE SYRUP has been most successful in effecting a radica cure in cases which have existed many months.

PENEDO'S VEGETABLE SYRUP is of the highest utility in all diseases of the Chest and Lungs. This fact is proved by the many testimonials handed to the Proprietor by men of acknowledged ability and reputation.

The following certificate is one of many that have been received by the Professor:—

Rio Janeiro May 1, 1869.
Professor Penedo.

Dear Sir,

I feel bound to acknowledge the marvellous results effected by the Syrup, called "VEGETABLE DE PENEDO," In the Province of Rio Grande, and it is, in my opinion, a most valuable medicine in all cases of Pulmonic Affections on Diseases of the Chest, many of my patients, who have had occasion to use your Specific for these complaints, have assured me that they invariably derived the greatest benefit.

Upwards of Fifty Years' experience has fully confirmed the superior reputation of these Lozenges, in the cure of Asthma, Winter Cough, Hoarseness, Shortness of Breath, and other Pulmonary Maladies.

TESTIMONIAL.

Copy of a letter from the late Colonel Hawker (the well-known author on "Guns and Shooting.")

Longparish House, near Whitchurch, Hants, October 21, 1846.

SIR—I cannot resist informing you of the extraordinary effect I have experienced by taking only a few of your 'Lozenges.' I had a cough for several weeks that defied all that had been prescribed for me; and yet I got completely rid of it by taking about half a small box of your Lozenges, which I find are the only ones that relieve the cough without deranging the stomach or digestive organs.

I am, Sir,
Your humble Servant.
